

Peacock of Princeton to Meet Blossom of Yale for College Golf Crown--Harvard Eleven Begins Work

YALE MAN TO MEET TIGER IN GOLF FINAL

Blossom Beats Bredin, a Mate; Peacock Is Victorious Over Marshall of Williams.

PRINCETONIAN EXTENDED

GREENWICH, Conn., Sept. 13.—Francis R. Blossom of Yale and Grant A. Peacock of Princeton were the winners today in the semi-final round of the individual championship of the Intercollegiate Golf Association, played on the links of the Greenwich Country Club. They will meet to-morrow in a thirty-six hole match to decide the ownership of the title now held by Edward P. Ellis Jr., who was graduated from Harvard last June and therefore became ineligible to defend his championship.

Both of the semi-final matches to-day were at thirty-six holes, one being hard fought and the other pretty much of a rout. Blossom was the easy winner, for he defeated Louis L. Bredin, also of Yale, by 7 up and 6 to play, after leading all the way, and Peacock was the easier victor, having defeated John Marshall, Jr., of Williams by 3 up and 2 to play.

Bredin, who did so well against Robert J. Gardner, the new national champion, in the first round at Detroit, played indifferent golf to-day and Blossom never had to work hard to win. Winning two of the first three holes put Blossom 2 up, so he didn't worry much when he got into all kinds of trouble at the fourth and took a 7. He won three more before the turn was reached and in 15 and 4 he was on his way to the final round. He was downy at that point and when the twelfth was halved in 4, both missing fairly easy putts, the match was over. The cards:

BIG HARVARD SQUAD BEGINS REAL WORK

Over Ninety Men Turn Out for First Day of Practice on Crimson Gridiron.

VETERANS ARE SCARCE

CAMBRIDGE, Mass., Sept. 13.—More than ninety football players, the largest squad that has reported in years at Harvard, were on hand for the Crimson's first day of football drill this afternoon. The squad comprised practically all of the old men who are back, all save a few of the most promising freshmen and deters who have previously played on their class teams and the scrub. In point of size and experience it was the huskiest and likeliest looking squad Haughton ever has had on the first day.

Capt. Mahan was in charge of the practice, but Parsons, the tackle, was the only regular left from last year. Wallace, the center, not being on hand. The first substitute list, however, was well represented by Watson, the quarterback; Bigelow, R. Curtis, C. Coolidge and Soucy, linemen; and McKinnick, Rollins, King, Whitney and Wilcox for the back field. Gilman, a variety tackle two years ago, reported for work, although with a slightly lame ankle, while Lyman and Cane, two strong men on the 1914 freshman team who were not eligible last fall, were also present.

The work to-day was light because of the weather, but the coaches got right down to work with the position squads. Percy Haughton, Bob Storey and Larry Parmenter were the only old varsity coaches, but Mal Logan and Harry Gardner, the veterans, looked over the quarterback material. Gil Brown and Frank O'Brien were in charge of the ends. Pennock, who was an All-American guard for three years, will help coach the linemen until college opens in September. For some years a freshman team was out full force and some of it looked mighty good. Enright, Taylor, Robinson and Wiggins all stood up well for varsity work. Roberson was coached in kicking by Percy Haughton and his punting was remarkable for the first day.

Reggie Brown, the strategy man, also came out for an hour and watched the back field men closely. Joseph A. Pipal of Oriental College, Los Angeles, was on the field as the guest of Percy Haughton. He has been successful as a forward and lateral pass coach and will be at Cambridge for a few days. In addition to the varsity coaches, looking on the sidelines were Coach Taylor, a former national indoor champion, advanced to the fourth round. The doubles will start to-morrow. The summaries:

HANSA FAR IN FRONT IN HER MAIDEN RACE

Beats Favorite by Six Lengths and Brings More Glory to Thompson Stable.

PURDUE ALSO RUNS WELL

Although only one day more remains before the close of the local racing season and many of the horses have been shipped to Havre de Grace for the Maryland campaign there were enough features in the sport at Belmont Park yesterday to keep the crowd interested.

The first appearance of L. S. Thompson's Hansa in the second race, for maiden two-year-olds, caused that event to take on more importance than is usual with an overnight contest. There was some curiosity to see whether the filly could duplicate the feat of many years ago when she won the stakes at Racine, Wis., by six lengths.

The daughter of Hamburg—Daisy F. made good in impressive style, galloping in six lengths in front of the field, and won by six lengths, which started favorite.

Hansa is a full sister to Jersey Lightning, so that, to use the terms of the racing world, she is a "sister" to the Regret and Thunder. With such breeding to recommend her it was strange that after opening an equal favorite with Racine, she went back in the second race to 11 to 1, while Racine went to 11 to 10.
